Classes

Our classes are slowing down for the summer months. We know you are busy with graduations, weddings and barbeques.

Fine Points would be happy to schedule a class of your choosing. All we need is two or more people. Let us know what you would like to learn and we can get it organized at your convenience.

Learn to Knit and/or Crochet with Faith Wyse, Saturday, July 18, 1-4pm, $35.00. There has been such an overwhelming response to this class that we want to try to offer it every month. Here's a great opportunity to learn to knit AND crochet in the same class. If you want to learn just one or the other, that's fine, too. Learned once, but don't quite remember how to do it? Here is your chance to refresh your skills. Faith is skilled at both and will have you hooking and/or clicking away in no time. Besides that, Faith is an expert in mixing colors and textures that gives everything she makes a big "WOW" factor. She will show you how to do this with even the simplest of knitting/ crochet stitches.

Classes

It was Wednesday Morning.

I had spent several hours at home doing Fine Points paperwork, making my lunch and getting ready for work.

I had spoken to my sister twice, my husband three times, one of my sons twice, the store twice and the man who would be fixing our driveway once.

At about 11:00, I began loading my car and preparing to leave for the day.

I was hoping to attend a yoga class before work, but the clock was ticking and it looked like I was going to be late for yoga. During all this activity, my brain kept repeating the laundry list of what I had to do that day.

I began driving my car, stopping at the post office, knowing I would be late for yoga and hoping I wouldn't. At that point, I just didn't know if it would be worth it to even try to make it.

Our big Fine Points yarn sale was beginning that afternoon and if I went to yoga, I would be about two hours late getting to the store, and I didn't want to put extra pressure on my staff during the sale.

I got to an intersection and waited at a light.
I still hadn't made my decision.
If I turned right, I would proceed to Larchmere.
Turning left would take me to Yoga.

When I got to my class, I was happy to find the class hadn't begun. The next hour and a half of quiet gave me the strength I needed to remove myself from the stresses of the morning and allowed me to enter a calmer, more centered place.

My thoughts became clearer; and when I arrived at the store, I was able to deal with the frenzy of the first day of the sale. Situations which ordinarily would have created chaos, moved gracefully into an easier space.

Would this have happened anyway?

Who can say. For my part, I'm glad that I went with my gut and was able to choose a supportive path for my day.

I was glad I turned left!

Liz
